Dedication

"The man we're honoring here today has been 'Mr. Commerce' — all the way."

Robert Jackson.

The senior class wishes to dedicate Caduceus 1958 to Mr. G. Donald Melville, now retired, who devoted 34 years of his life to serving the High School of Commerce in almost every phase of its operation.

6/58 The School '58

Foreword

We, the staff of Caduceus, present in this our 1958 memory book some of the cherished things which we shall carry away from our seemingly brief high school career.

Most of our memories are intangible — the timid fears of a bewildered freshman, the daily morning stroll through the corridors, the familiar request for a pass, the rebuke or praise of an unexpectedly requested classroom recitation, the eager press of the lunchroom crowd, the discovery that a secret admiration is mutual, the inward flutter before opening a report card envelope, the merited pride of a lofty senior, the fleeting days before graduation. Other memories are events — the big game we won, the dance we attended, the stage show we enjoyed putting on, the formal prom, and finally the receipt of our treasured diploma.

These and other memories are often embodied in the words we have heard and thrilled to throughout the years. Among them are the proud school motto, the jubilant refrains of our school song, the spirited school cheers, the pronouncements at Commencement. It is these Commerce traditions in words that we fondly commemorate in our 1958 Caduceus.

Miss Mary Rearden
Secretary to Dr. Gamel

Mrs. Dorothy Malone
Office Staff

Dr. Oscar Y. Gamel, principal, assumed his position at the High School of Commerce in September, 1953. During these last five years, he has been instrumental in bringing about many improvements in our school. In addition to administrative work, Dr. Gamel has always been able to find time to accommodate the students who seek his advice and approval on various matters.

Born in Moody, Texas, Dr. Gamel received his B.A. from West Texas State College. He then attended Columbia University, where he earned his M. Ed. and Ph. D. Ed. degrees. Before he came to Commerce, he was assistant principal of Van Sickle Junior High School and principal of Chestnut Street Junior High School.

Mr. Raymond J. Montagna, assistant principal, also entered our school in September of 1953. Since that time, he has faithfully fulfilled his many duties, which include the direction of Commerce Capers, social functions, and faculty and student schedules. His main tasks are administrative, in the disciplinary field.

Mr. Montagna was born in Agawam, Massachusetts. He received his B.S. from American International College, his M. Ed. from Springfield College, and has continued his graduate studies at the University of Massachusetts. Before taking his present position here at Commerce, Mr. Montagna taught mathematics at Agawam High School and Chestnut Street Junior High School.

Bookkeeping Teaches Many Business Phases

Shown below are Janet Raschi and Betty Valentine in the foreground, and Everett Venturini and Phyllis Peterson in the background, working diligently on their practice sets. By working on these practice sets the students gain experience in handling forms similar to actual business papers. This is only one of the many phases of business that the students encounter in the Bookkeeping Department.

This is a blank bookkeeping practice form. It features a header section with fields for 'Name', 'Address', and 'City'. Below this is a large table with multiple columns and rows, designed for recording financial transactions. The columns are labeled with various accounting terms, and the rows are intended for individual entries.

This is a completed bookkeeping practice form titled 'BOWMAN Electric Shop'. It shows a 'Profit and Loss Statement' for the month ended May 31, 1957. The form includes a header section with the shop's name and address, followed by a table with columns for 'Debit' and 'Credit'. The table contains several rows of data, including 'Sales', 'Cost of Goods Sold', 'Expenses', and 'Profit'. The total profit is listed as $1,200.00.

Stenography Also Aids Successful Careers

Shown below in Miss Conway's typing class are Kathleen Kelley, Joan Borek and Beverly Brosnan in the foreground, and Carol Topoosian, Lucille LaFlamme and Beverly Fusaro in the background.

In this class the students work with actual business forms, thus becoming further acquainted with office procedures. In addition they try to build up their typing speed.

Class Prophecy

June 14, 1968

On this day, June 14, 1968, the members of the class of 1958 will meet again for their reunion. Upon looking up the addresses of various members of our class, we find that their activities and professions have taken them to cities throughout the United States and many European countries.

Because of the distance between these various places and Springfield, our graduates find it difficult to arrive at the same time. At this point we would like to thank Mrs. David Durocher, the former Carol La Francis, and her husband for lending us one of their planes from their company, Flight Enterprise, in New Jersey, so that we may pick up our former classmates for this reunion.

At the airport we find the crew members of the Red Raider plane about ready for departure. Our official hostess and chief stewardess, Ann Mitchell, greets us at the door and sees to it that we are quite comfortable for our long journey. After a quick briefing on our flight and what to do in case of emergency, our stewardess introduces us to the rest of the crew.

We are quite surprised to find former classmates Bill Flanders as pilot, Pete Coles as co-pilot, Larry Beerwort as crew chief, and Gloria Shirly and Judy Ingalls as our two charming assistant stewardesses. They now announce our first stop to be Dallas, Texas, where we will find that wealthy oil millionaire, Neal

David, who is traveling with his staff of Commerce graduates. His two favorite private secretaries are Helen Misterka and Frannie Monzillo, who are accompanied by one of the world's most famous draftsmen, the personal aide to Mr. David, Betty Denesha.

While in Miami all of us leave for a quick tour of the fabulous city and end up at the famous Vagabond Club, now owned by Edward Stubbs. The ladies all remark on the lovely color scheme and decoration of the club. Upon inquiring we find that it was designed by the famous interior decorator, Naureen Dunscombe. This conversation comes to an end when the lights dim and the wonderful singing group the "HEARTBURNS" take the floor. Their manager, Mrs. Beusee, the former Carol Harrison, tells us that their hit record "PAIN" has sold over twenty-five million copies. After their performance we meet the members of the group, who are Gerry Beusee, Jimmy Wright, John Dorn, and Tommy Ryan. Following this is the terrific dance act starring Joyce Pappas and Joanne Szarlan.

After collecting our group of alumnae, whom do we see but Beverly Rodiman and Virginia White, the debutantes, wearing minks, and taking their annual tour around the world. We then set off in our Red Raider plane for our next stop, Venice, Italy.

Class Prophecy

Here we find the Pizza Queen, Lorraine Testori, working in her pizza house. Along with her is Sheila Balicki, who is helping Lorraine out in between coaching her pee-wee Giants Team, with the help of her favorite Giants' star, her husband, Bob Simpson.

After picking up our passengers from Italy, we continue on to Paris, France. Here we are in magnificent Paris, where our first stop will be at the Mark Stern-bane's Salon of Fashion, where Roberta Malcolm is top model. After leaving the dress shop, we walk down the Champs Elysee; and whom do we see, Deborah King, the famous veterinarian accompanied by her five pink French poodles.

Who is that coming down the street? Well, it's Paul Oldenburg, one of the best taxi drivers in Paris.

As evening settles over Paris, we find ourselves once again in the air. Homeward at last . . .

Look! there is Bradley Field! What a wonderful feeling to be at our last landing stop; and look at the reception committee, too!

Why it's Brian O'Brien, that man out of Esquire, the owner of the nationally known Brian O'Brien, O'Brien, O'Brien, Incorporated Novelty Shop, which specializes in fake pencils, insects and squirt guns. With Brian is Tom Fielding, the top TV producer of "Mousey Land," who is about to be greeted by our stewardess. Let's eavesdrop, Brian, O.K.? Listen to the old nick names: Mickey Mouse and Field Mouse, our old friends.

Well! look at the free bus service we have provided by Don Kozaczka. Now that we are comfortably seated on the buses, we head for our destination, the reunion at the Artuph Hotel. This hotel is owned and managed by the one and only Roman Artuph . . .

Look at all the familiar faces here. There is Mrs. George Knight, the former Donna Barry, who has for the past three years taken the trophies at the Indianapolis Speedway with her little soap box. Trying to win the trophy from Mrs. Knight for the past three years is Mrs. Irving Witkop, the former Bev Battige. With them we find that likable gas station attendant, Jimmy Smith, and his little windshield washer, Jane Terzi.

Over in the far corner we find Barbara Winiarski chatting with the former Judy Harris, who just lately became Mrs. Thomas Pettengill.

Who is sitting over there? If it isn't Kitty Giancola with her camera! I heard Kitty is Mr. Jones's little photographer helper at Commerce.

Here is a group of old friends and the new additions to Harlem Globe Trotters, Paul Ward, Joe Davis, Ned McCants and Willie "Lump Lump" Jones. Look who's coming, Faith Nascembeni and her little pupil, Johnny Veinot.

For some strange reason we find Nick Agnos hiding behind the potted palms in the corner. Hmm Hmm, now we know the reason why. Here come Maureen Kelley and her Nick-thirsty blood hounds.

Now we take our places as Jerry Beaulieu, our Senator from Massachusetts and guest speaker, concludes our evening.

Class Will

We, the Senior class of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight, of the High School of Commerce, having neither the mentality nor emotions toward others, do hereby bequeath and bestow the herein mentioned articles as the only will and testament we dare write.

To the five finest, Dr. Gamel, Mr. Montagna, Mr. Rumpal, Mrs. LaBonte, and Mr. Conchieri, we leave our deep appreciation for their endless work in our behalf.

The G.O. Accounting class leaves one roller-skate for next year's agents so they can collect money.

The "Commerce" staff leaves a large economy size magnifying glass for tracking down news for future "Commerce" editions.

Franny Fazio leaves a pair of track shoes to the athlete who shall take the copy of "Commerce" to the printer's office.

The Capers' script writers leave the hours of tiresome work and the responsibility of the show to anyone brave enough to take the job. Also enclosed is a slightly used script.

Nancy Kean leaves the "Caduceus beanie" to next year's editor-in-chief.

Franny Monzillo leaves her sun glasses to Eddie Bishop so he can watch all the girls without getting eyestrain.

Gerald Beaulieu leaves a box of safety pins to next year's Senior class president to hold his class together.

Brian O'Brien leaves his sharp pencil and stenography notebook to any ambitious male stenographer.

Jean Markowski leaves her seat in Driver Education to anyone who dares take it. (She didn't get her license.)

Joyce Pappas leaves her dancing shoes to the toe-dancing specialist, Marty Dumschat.

Dolly Filiault wills her secret of success for the teams to Vicki Serafini. (Her red-laced sneakers.)

Anita Ford and Kay Fitzgerald leave their seats in the coffee shop to any underclassmen who want to find out who went where with who, when, and did what.

To next year's class couple we leave a set of handcuffs to keep them together. They are Mike Morris and Pat Mastalerz.

Any remaining properties, after all bequests have been granted, shall be destroyed or ruined so as to prevent contagion and epidemic.

In testimony whereof we, the departing Class of June, 1958, in the presence of witnesses, hereunto subscribe, submit, and seal our first, last, and only will and testament.

Sing a song of freshmen, each and every one.
Because of you dear freshies the seniors had their fun...
Fun is fun, but when it's done, you must remember, too,
That it wasn't long ago when we were just like you.

Team Compiles Best Record in School History

One of the best High School of Commerce baseball squads in years hit and pitched itself into third place in the Interscholar League and was undefeated in independent games. Led by All-City representative Bob Simpson and Tom D'Agostino, who also made All-Western Mass. positions, the team totaled 146 runs to its opponents' 75. In the final week of the season Bob Simpson pitched a no-hitter against Monson, which was followed by the boys beating the Alumni 4 to 1. Tom D'Agostino's one-hit victory in the final game rounded out the season.

The 1957 Football season was featured by exciting and thrilling games played by some of the most promising boys Commerce has produced. It was the third year of rebuilding the sport at Commerce. Opening the season were a 13-0 victory at Longmeadow and a 20-6 win over Palmer High at Pynchon Park. In the Palmer game, Commerce fans saw a spectacular 83 yard run by sparkplug Eddie Gearing. Only a short 2 weeks later the team traveled to Lee, where Don Kozaczka intercepted a Lee pass and raced 84 yards for the only Red Raider tally of the contest.

With less than a minute remaining in this game, Lee tallied to tie the game, 6-6. At Lee the team contracted the flu, and the following 2 contests with Wilbraham and Williston were cancelled. The only loss of the season came at the hands of the Tech J. V. at Trade Field. Classical was the final victim of the Raiders as they were defeated 7-0. Center Al Collings and Back Eddie Gearing were named to the All-City team, while Ends John Fitzgerald and Willie Jones, and Backs Ned McCants and Don Kozaczka received honorable mention.

Soccer in 1957 was a sport in which Commerce placed third in the Interschool League with 3 wins and 5 losses. Having a bit of trouble starting the season with 6 straight losses, the squad bounced back with 3 consecutive victories, all of which were Interschool contests. Mario Silva was the high scorer for the team as he collected 8 goals in Commerce's posting an overall record of 5 wins and 10 losses. The final game of the season was with the Commerce Alumni, who took the contest 6 to 3.

Raiders Compile Best Record in Recent Years

Above: Eddie Gearing (38) is competing against a Classical player for the ball in the first exciting game which the team played against the Bulldogs. The contest ended in a victory for the Raiders. Insert: Coach Collins.

Led by backcourt mates Eddie Gearing and Joe Davis, the Red Raiders posted a 14-4 record, going 4-4 in the Interschool League and 10-0 in independent play.

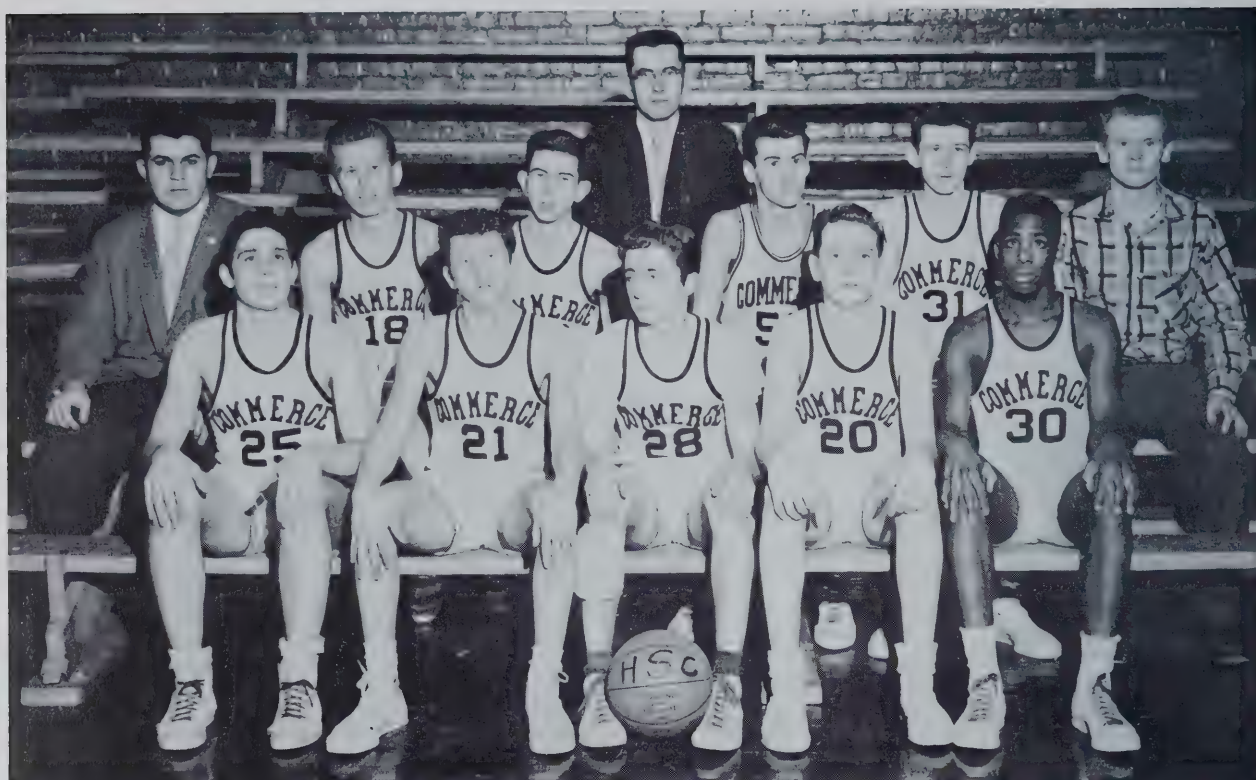

Late in the season saw the Interschool race drawing tight with three teams in contention for first place at one time. In the second round meeting with Trade, Commerce suffered its heaviest loss of 42-38 at the hands of the Trade Beavers. The final game of the season was played against Classical, and here Eddie Gearing swished 39 points, his highest game total in the season, but the Raiders were two points short and suffered a 66-64 defeat.

Eddie's total of 387 gave him an average of 21.5, while Joe Davis was next with a 13.2. Eddie later was given the John Lahovich award as the outstanding basketball player of the greater Springfield area.

SOFTBALL — TRACK

Every spring the girls enjoy softball practice after school. The most exciting day of the season is the Playday in which all the schools in this area participate.

Mrs. Richardson is just about to start these five girls off on a 75-yard dash. They are Linda Bonner, Carol Ferguson, Janice Noel, Charlotte Parks, and Adrienne Henderson.

GOLF — TENNIS

Gloria Goodrich, Alice Lovelace, Peggy Harrington, and Pat Fay enjoyed a good season of golf last spring.

The Tennis Club met every week last spring at the Forest Park courts. Beside the tennis techniques that the girls learned from Miss Owen, they learned good sportsmanship. Shown here are Susan Frangiamore, Connie Sibilia, Carol Souliere, Marilyn Pippin, Bonnie English, Joan Morris, Evelyn St. Marie, Elinor Landers, Theresa Gravel, and Judy Stagnaro.

Second Row: Sheila Waldron, Therese Rybczyk, Joanna Bulat, and Diane Chicketti. Third Row: Gail Bernier, Jennie Starzyk, Carol Crosby, Imelda Byrnes, and Betty Agnos. The job of G.O. agents is to collect money in the homerooms for each school function.

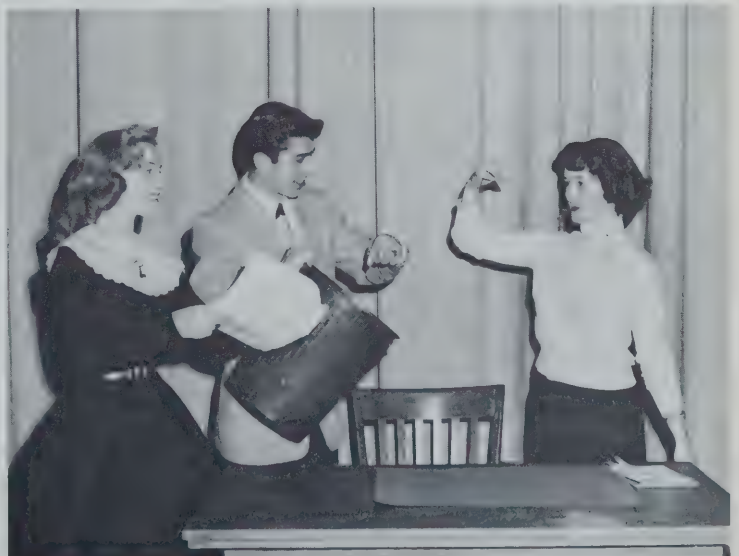

Right: At one of the Drama Club meetings, Mr. Donald Thomas spoke on technical details of play acting. He also portrayed the Earl of Essex in "Elizabeth the Queen" as one of his examples.

At left are the students who starred in the play "Calling Success," which was put on by the High School of Commerce for the National Office Management Association. The performance was presented at the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company. Seated: Linda Donovan, Patricia Carville, and Joyce Pappas. Standing: Edward Stubbs, Marty Dumschat, and Gerry Beaulieu.

Right: Linda Donovan, Gerry Beaulieu, and Pat Carville are shown here acting in their play, "Calling Success." The theme was how to be successful in a business office. Examples such as chewing gum and un-attentive listening were given to show what shouldn't be done.

CAPER

Ronnie Rheaume gave his interpretation of Elvis Presley, one of the highlights of Capers '57.

At right: Nancy Klase, Ann Mitchell, Beverly Forstrom, and Judy Bruno, as girls of the future.

The Dolphins: Connie Sullivan, Tom Ryan, Brian O'Brien, and John Dorn, sang several popular rock 'n roll songs, much to the delight of Commerce's female population.

Above: Pat Trudeau, Joy Regan, Sheila Sullivan, and Sandra MacPherson gave a sample of the Charleston as it was danced in the Roaring Twenties.

Red, ventriloquist Paul Leveillee's dummy, was the center of attraction for Judy Edgerton, Lorraine Ashwell, Patti Allen and Lois Bliss.

The Commerce Cuties: Larry Beerwort, Gerry Beaulieu, Ed Stubbs, Tom Fielding, Ronald Begin, and Roman Artuph demonstrated some tricky steps and chic styles.

Standing: Pauline Drago, Vivian Smith, Elizabeth Shimkus, Nancy Kean, Patricia Flynn, Joan Terzi, Carol Bradley, Beverly Fusaro, and Sheila Tuohy.

JOURNALISM BUSINESS STAFFS

Senior Candids

So, what's new?

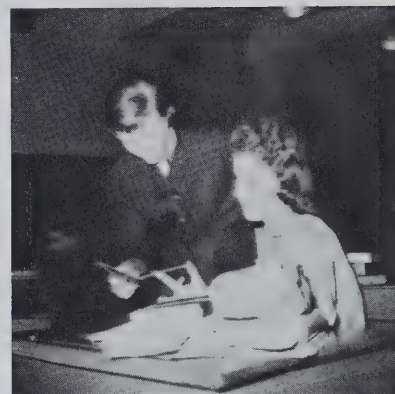

You think it's right?

Let me see, too.

This the right one?

I like your picture.

h-e-t-e-r-o-g-e-n-e-o-u-s-?

Are you ready for the test?

You're kidding!!

Senior Candids

Will we ever get there?

We won!

6 $\frac{7}{8}$ or 7?

Relaxing after school.

Is that right?

Senior Candids

Last minute enjoyment.

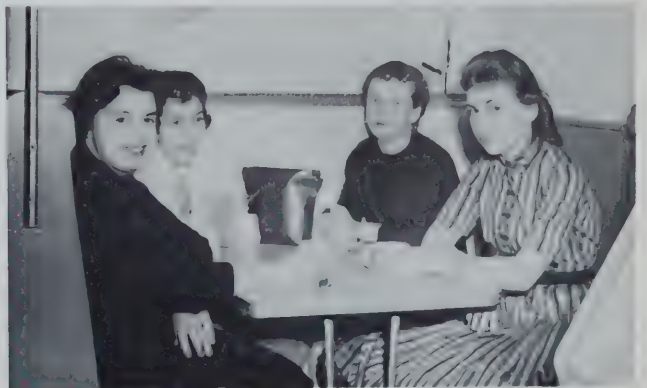

Coke and study.

We got a basket!

Let's get those ballots counted.

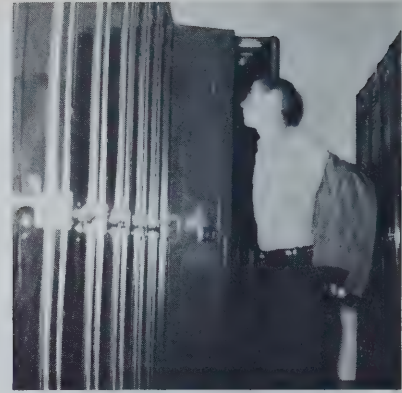

Oh, that's a dreamy song.

More Candids

Sounds Crazy!

Lots of Time

Another Test

This Book?

Food! (or pocketbooks?)

Yes, She Was Nice

Surprised?

Did You See That?
